GOVERNOR MITT ROMNEY ANNOUNCES THE NEW HAMPSHIRE WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP TEAM

Boston, MA

– Today, Governor Mitt Romney announced the Romney for President New Hampshire Women's Leadership Team comprised of 109 women representing all ten counties in the State. The New Hampshire Women's Leadership Team will play a pivotal role in providing Governor Romney with information and guidance throughout the Granite State.

"This team of diverse and experienced leaders will play a vital role in our Granite State campaign. These talented women leaders add to our already strong grassroots organization in New Hampshire. With their help, we are well on our way to reaching every voter and ensuring they hear our message of change in Washington through a stronger military, stronger economy and stronger families," said Governor Romney.

Leading Governor Romney's New Hampshire Women's Leadership Team are five Co-Chairs representing various geographical regions of the State. The five New Hampshire Women's Leadership Team Co-Chairs are Nancy Dwight, Carol Holden, Jane Keough, Betty Maiola, and Sharon Sykas.

In a joint statement the Co-Chairwomen said, "We believe that Mitt Romney is the best candidate to be our next President. We share and support his vision to lead our nation by strengthening our economy, our national security and our families. Governor Romney is the leader our nation needs at this critical time. We look forward to working with him as the chairwomen of his New Hampshire Women's Leadership Team."
